TIT FOR TAT.

JAN 22 1927

Because of his poor table manners, little Tom Kit is sent without, without his breakfast. Outside he watches a bird teaching the little birds how to fly. One makes friends with Tommy.

Francisco Fox sees the two little chums, and thinking that one would be a tender morseel grabs the little bird and dashes away. Little Tommy, however, saves the bird. Francisco turns on him and chases him to a cliff. They fall off the cliff into the river below.

The bird has been following them and when Tommy and the fox are swirled to the brink of a waterfall, he rescues Tommy by the nape of the neck and flies back to Tommy's home.

The rescuer is lauded and is rewarded with a can of worms which he takes back to his own nest.
